This is the last Article for the Iowa Supplement of the Knights Templar Magazine that I will be doing. A new gentleman from the Des Moines area is going to take over starting with the August article. It has been a great 5 years of doing this, there have been fun articles and then some not so fun ones. It has been a great time and I want to thank everyone who has helped with information or provided me with articles when I've really needed them.

Grand Encampment has a new web site located at www.knightstemplar.org. The next time you are online, check out the site and let us know you visited us by signing our guest book.
