George Scanlan Receives KCT Award

George Scanlan, PC, was presented with the prestigious Knight Commander of the Temple award on May 21, 2011 in Alexandria, Louisiana. The Knight Commander of the Temple (KCT) award is the second highest decoration of the Grand Encampment. It is explained that the award does not mean that your work is done, but that it also stands for the work you are intended to do in the future for Knights Templar.

Jim O'Quinn receives Gold Honor Award

The York Rite College of North America created and designed a Gold Honor Award which is given for unselfish and outstanding service in any branch of the York Rite which is composed of members of the Blue Lodge, Royal Arch Chapters, Council and Commandery.

From REGC Keith Powell

Sir Knights: The month of November brings in cool weather and we begin to think of the holiday of Thanksgiving. It seems we all are happy and enjoy the traditional family festivities. The meal will be, of course, the main attraction. The large turkey with stuffing, rice or cornbread dressing, cranberry sauce, fruit pies, sweet potatoes fixed many ways for everyone's enjoyment and many other foods that we all enjoy.

As you gather with your family, do remember to pray for our Nation, the service men and women defending our great nation including the families of those who have given their lives allowing us to have our Thanksgiving, family members traveling to and from the meeting house and the Brethren, Companions and Sir Knights throughout our great Country. Ask God to bless us and forgive us of our faults and trespasses. Amen.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving!

In Christ, Keith Powell, REGC wpowel@lsuhsc.edu
