Grand Master's Message for December Christmas-2004

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." (St. John 1:1 KJV)

"And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) full of grace and truth." (St. John 1:14 KJV)

The celebration of the birth of every baby is special, one which everyone enjoys and recognizes.

The birth of Jesus was the beginning of the most special event this world has ever seen. He brought the hope of Peace to the world through his innocent and loving life.

His gentle teachings are powerful and far-reaching. They can still touch our innermost being and bring us closer to God.

To say that they are simple is an understatement. They are so simple that many miss their meaning altogether. What, for example, could be more simple than the Golden Rule?

My prayer for you Sir Knights and your families is that you will continue in prayer for a world that will find peace, a world that will learn to live in peace and harmony, and that we will continue His work.

Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year! May God bless us, every one!

Grand Prelate's Christmas Message-2004 "Silent Night, Holy Night"

by Reverend and Grand Prelate Thomas G. Keithly for the Grand Prelates and the Committee on Religious Activities

It is December 24, late on Christmas Eve, somewhere in Germany in the early 1940s. A barracks door opens quietly, cautiously, and a figure steps out, dark against the white blanket of snow on the ground. Then, another person emerges. Other doors open from rows of barracks, and gradually, streams of men are moving, silently, or with only the lowest murmuring of voices and the soft sound of boots breaking the frosty crust on the layer of snow.

They are heading for an open area - a place where logs laid out in rows to serve as bleachers indicate that it is a place of assemblage. The American Prisoners of War had asked the German Commandant for permission to have a Christmas "midnight" service. Permission denied! The POWs, with their Chaplain, are still determined that they are going to observe Christmas with corporate worship. The service begins; after some preliminaries they are singing the familiar words...

"Silent night, holy night..."

Perhaps the men in back hear it first: the sound of boots crunching in the snow, slowly approaching behind them. Hair raises on the back of their necks, but no one looks around. They go on singing...

"All is calm, all is bright..."

As the approaching boots draw near, more of the POWs become aware of the sound...

"Round yon virgin mother and child Holy infant, so tender and mild..."

They are determined not to quit and continue singing...

"Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace."

Then it happens! As they start another verse, voices behind them join in:

"Stille Nacht, Heilige Nacht
Alles schläft, einsam wacht..."

The German guards are joining them in adoring the Christ-child on this blessed Feast of the Nativity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus, the Christ!

What is it about Christmas that can work such magic? In the midst of a bitter war, men in trying circumstances, who the day before were bitter enemies, are acting like family, as brothers.

I read about this event years ago. Maybe it was in a magazine or a newspaper, shortly after the end of World War II. The story haunts me. Not in a bad sense of "haunt," but because it keeps popping up in my conscious mind. I can't lay my hands on the text I read then, so I had to re-create the story. Therefore, some of the details are as I have come to envision the event. However, I believe the gist of the story is true. If any reader is, or knows of, a surviving eyewitness, or an authentic written account of this event, I would love to hear from him.

"Silent Night" is the best known Christmas hymn worldwide, and the best loved. Into how many languages has it been translated from the original German? It has the power to unite so many people in spite of their greatest differences in culture or outlook or status, because it expresses so well the power of the Christ Child to unite in love and adoration all who have come to know Him as Savior.

The story of this event, in the midst of a war, has a powerful message to teach precisely because the Incarnation of our Lord and Savior, Jesus, the Christ, the Messiah, is a powerful lesson to humankind. In the midst of the present conflicts in the world, humankind is again demonstrating just how far from grace we have fallen, how grotesquely we can misuse the God-given gift of free will in acts of terror and hatred, instead of kindness and love. What more appropriate time for the world to hear...

"Jesus der Retter ist da!"
"Christ the Savior is born!"
Christ the Savior is born!"

(A further note on "Silent Night." On Christmas Eve, 1818 it was discovered that mice had chewed into the bellows of the organ of St. Nicholas' Church, Orbandorf, Upper Austria. With no time to have the organ repaired for the Christmas Eve service, the assistant priest, Joseph Mohr, wrote six verses of "Silent Night," and asked the Choirmaster, Franz Gruber, to set it to simple music he could accompany on the guitar. Herr Gruber wrote the song in the mode of a traditional Tyrolean folk melody. It might have ended there, in an out-of-the-way, northern Austrian village, except the man who came to repair the organ saw the copy on the organ music stand and began to spread it throughout the Tyrol. And we know the rest of the story.)

Message from the General Chairman of The 37th Annual Voluntary Campaign

by Dr. James N. Karnegis
Department Commander, North Central and
General Chairman of the 37th Annual Voluntary Campaign

Eyes Across America Now You See It, Now You Don't

Blindness means the absence of sight. It is a tragedy not to be able to see. Not only do Knights Templar know that, they are doing something about it. That is why they have established a premier organization that is working today and every day to help preserve the precious gift of sight. That organization is the Knights Templar Eye Foundation, a Masonic charity sponsored by the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America.

This month marks the beginning of the 37th Annual Voluntary Campaign (December 1, 2004 - April 30, 2005) of the Knights Templar Eye Foundation. Because of the year after year dedication and generosity of the Sir Knights, their Commanderies, and their Grand Commanderies; the work of the Knights Templar Eye Foundation (KTEF) is able to continue. It is extraordinary that the KTEF spends $6,000,000 a year for people to receive surgical treatment that they desperately need for their eye diseases and for which there is nowhere else for them to turn - and this is every year! It is extraordinary that the KTEF spends $600,000 a year to fund grants to major universities in the United States so that researchers in pediatric ophthalmology can discover new information on how to prevent eye disease - and this is every year! It is extraordinary that the KTEF has a partnership with the American Academy of Ophthalmology to the tune of a quarter of a million dollars a year to help senior citizens with eye problems - and this is every year!

Question: Who is it that can do all of this?

Answer: YOU can: the individual Sir Knight, your Commandery, and your Grand Commandery.

Blindness means the actual loss of sight. But sometimes something can be right in front of us and we still don't see it. Here is an interesting example.

Cover your left eye. Fix your gaze on the cross. You will also see the dot in the periphery. Hold the paper at arm's length. Without changing your focus on the cross, slowly bring the paper closer and closer. As you do so you will reach a point where the dot will disappear and be replaced by an all-white background. This is normal and is because the image of the dot is now projected on the optic nerve head, which itself has no visual capacity. Instead of letting you see the blind spot, your brain fools you by substituting for the blind spot its surrounding white background.

Sir Knight James N. Karnegis, M.D., Ph.D., KCT, GCT, Right Eminent Department Commander of the North Central Department, Grand Encampment, is the General Chairman of the 37th Annual Voluntary Campaign. He resides at 20975 Bonanza Boulevard, Elkhorn, NE 68022-1838

Knights Templar Eye Foundation Funds Amblyopia Research

The KTEF has awarded Dr. Yi-Zhong Wang a grant of $30,000 for a research project to develop a method to identify amblyopia (commonly called "lazy eye") in children. Amblyopia is the most common cause of visual impairment of one eye in children. It often lasts into adulthood if effective treatment is not carried out in early childhood.

A method that can effectively and reliably identify amblyopia among infants and children too young to read an eye chart would allow eye care professionals to treat the visual disorder earlier. In this research project, Dr. Wang will use new visual stimulus patterns to study the roles of different cues to shape and contour in shape discrimination performance of normal children and to study the impact of amblyopia on the identification of shapes formed by the different cues. The outcomes of this research project will provide new insight into the development of amblyopia. Results will also be used to develop new visual function tests that are easier for young children to perform, more sensitive in identifying young children with amblyopia, and more effective in assessing the response of amblyopia to treatment.

Jacqueline S. Hall, Director of Development of the Retina Foundation of the Southwest, wrote: "We are very grateful to the Knights Templar for their support of our pediatric eye research. Please tell everyone how much their support means to us."

Words from a Grateful Recipient of KTEF Assistance...

January 18, 2004

Dear Sir Knights,

Thanks to your generous, charitable organization, I received a most invaluable gift this Christmas - my eyesight! The words I write seem trite when compared to the much-needed improvement in my well being, which your organization financed - my surgery to restore my eyesight!

My right eye had an unusually dense cataract, and when the eye was used alone to read the eye chart, I was unable to see the very large "E" at the top of the chart! I had a less dense cataract on my left eye, and it, also, was removed.

The surgery was very successful and practically painless. In reading the eye chart after my surgery, I found I had 20/20 vision! I even got the restriction for glasses removed from my driver's license. I still need prescription glasses for reading, although the prescription is not nearly as strong as it used to be, and my lenses will be much thinner and lighter.

This surgery not only improved my vision remarkably, but it also enabled me to continue with my job as a school bus driver.

I owe all this improvement in my life to your wonderful organization. All of you are truly blessed with God's grace and love, and I feel truly blessed by it, also.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart and soul.

May God continue to bless you as you bless others.

Sincerely,
Carol Poole

A Christmas Story

by Reverend Donald C. Kerr
Pastor-Emeritus

Christmas comes in many . shapes and sizes. One of . those ways is through the eyes of the artist. Corregio was a 16th century Italian painter, whose vision of Christmas he displayed in a painting called "The Holy Night," in which he saw the world in a mood of rapturous joy. He was only 40 years old when he died, but to him Christmas seemed to be a world without pain. In his painting of the Nativity at the center is a light that surrounds the infant Jesus, as if to suggest He is the light of the world. The action of the picture is set around a rickety, old stable; wooden beams are seen holding up a sagging roof.

One can see in the distance a rolling landscape and the dawn of a new day breaking forth. Off to the side are some shepherds, and overhead can be seen some angelic figures. Joseph is in the picture as are some animals. Mary and the child hold center spotlight. She is kneeling before a crude, wooden cradle, in which on a cushion of straw rests the Holy Child. Her arms are around Him, and her face shines with a happy radiance.

As one looks at this picture, all else fades into insignificance, as the penetrating stream of light is reflected between mother and child. The whole spirit of the painting reveals demanding love, devotion, adoration, and reverence; that is what Christmas is. It is a sense of overflowing joy, as perfect harmony as is seen in the transformed faces of all who come to worship. May it be for you this year and evermore. Merry Christmas!

On the Masonic Newsfront...

Meeting of the A.A.S.R., N.M.J.

Lexington, MA: A group of more than 1,700 33° Masons and their wives heard an update on Masonic charitable endeavors during the recent meeting of the Supreme Council for the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, Northern Masonic Jurisdiction.

The charities are supported by voluntary contributions from the 250,000 32° Masons throughout the jurisdiction. The National Heritage Museum in Lexington, Massachusetts, was built in 1975 through their efforts to provide changing exhibits on American history.

Learning Centers for dyslexic students have been providing free one-on-one tutoring at 40 locations. Within the next few years, the number of centers will increase to 59. Other charities include scholarships for college students and fellowships for schizophrenia research.

During the course of the meeting, which was held this year in Milwaukee, Wisconsin; three new members were elected to the governing board of the Supreme Council. They are: Donald G. Hicks, Jr., of Leominster, Massachusetts; William L. McCarrier, of Butler, Pennsylvania; and Frank R. Preble of Auburn, Maine. New Deputies include Charles E. Ridlon for Maine and Stephen E. Carpenter for Rhode Island. Retiring Deputy for Rhode Island, Gardner C. Sconyers, Jr., was elected Grand Secretary General replacing Philip L. Hall of Nashua, New Hampshire. Chester G. Burton of Cincinnati, Ohio, is Grand Keeper of the Archives, and Lee B. Lockwood of Lena, Illinois, is Grand Sword Bearer.

In addition to Hall, others retiring as Active Members are Richard G. Hawk of Scranton, Pennsylvania; C. William Lakso of Lunenburg, Massachusetts; Gary A. Henningsen of Monroe Township, New Jersey; and Richard H. Winship, Jr., of Orrington, Maine.

Each of the 15 Grand Lodges within the Northern Jurisdiction was represented. Also attending were officers from allied Masonic organizations across the country, as well as representatives from 17 Scottish Rite Supreme Councils around the world. Five visiting international leaders were named Emeriti Members of Honor of the Northern Jurisdiction. They are Ronald A. Seale of the Southern Jurisdiction, USA; Algie S. Oldham, Jr., Prince Hall Freemasonry, USA; Pierre Marchal of Belgium; Cesar A. Garcia of the Dominican Republic; and Henk E. Koning of the Netherlands.

The week-long meeting concluded with the conferral of the 33° upon 129 members who were selected for dedicated service to Scottish Rite Freemasonry or service reflecting credit upon the fraternity.

The names of 245 nominees were announced to receive the 33° at next year's meeting in Grand Rapids on August 30, 2005.

Sale of Blue Lodge Afghan-Throw to Benefit the KTEF

This Blue Lodge throw is made of 100% cotton and has many advantages over the old triple-weave design because it has 360 picks per square inch, which enhances the color immensely. There are new items in this design, including the 3 steps to Freemasonry. It has a black and white checkered floor leading up to the center column, and the compass and square are larger and enhanced with a cluster of leaves symbolizing Acacia of Freemasonry. The afghan measures 48-in. by 60-in, and is lightweight but weaved very tight for definition.

There are only 1,000 of these made, and each one comes with a beautiful certificate so that you may write your important dates of Freemasonry on it. The price is $48.00 each, including shipping in the US. A donation of $5.00 for each one sold will go to the KTEF. Send check or money order to: Sandra Knotts, P.O. Box 158, Trexlertown, PA 18087.

Brother John H. Grainger, Past Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Alaska: "It has taken time to introduce Freemasonry in the Far East and establish the two new lodges. Our efforts now are to assist the new leaders so they can, in turn, expand Freemasonry in other cities.

"We have been given a gift of Freemasonry. We feel an obligation to pass it on."

Freemasonry Emerges in the Russian Far East

by M.W.B. John H. Grainger, P.G.M., Grand Lodge of Alaska

After over 75 years of darkness, Freemasonry has returned to Far East Russia. The Alaska Russian Relations Committee, established in 1993 by M.W.B. John Grainger, started plans for two new Masonic lodges in Eastern Russia.

In 1995 the Grand Loge Nationale Française constituted the Grand Lodge of Russia. The Russian Relations Committee now works as a courtesy for the Russian Grand Lodge.

Because of the distances involved, Alaska is in a unique position to revive Freemasonry in Russia east of the Ural Mountains. Pacific Rim Lodge No. 12 in Vladivostok is located 5,200 miles from Moscow. This is twice the distance from Seattle to New York. Anchorage, Alaska, is approximately eight hours flying time to Vladivostok via South Korea.

We Arrived as Strangers - Departed as Friends: In 1993 an exploratory trip was made to Magadan in Eastern Russia to study the possibility of returning Freemasonry in Russia. Later a trip was made to Vladivostok, Khabarovsk, Blagoves-chensk, and Novosibirsk.

The Russian Relations Committee members formed Pacific Rim Lodge No. 12, Under Dispensation. Their first meeting, arranged by M.W.B. Charles Corbin, Co-chairman of the Russian Relations Committee, was held in Palmer, Alaska, September 11, 1999, where Nickoli Luzganov from Vladivostok was initiated a Master Mason. A month later eight Master Masons from Alaska followed up on this historic event by flying to Vladivostok and conferring all three degrees on eight new candidates. The new lodge attended by approximately 30 Masons, including the Grand Master of Russia, was constituted October 14, 2000, in Vladivostok.

In August 1996 Dr. Sergei Bogolepov from Novosibirsk asked the Grand Master of Alaska for some guidance in becoming a Mason. His grandfather was a Mason "but it was kept in our family as a great secret," he said. On April 4, 2002, with assistance from the Grand Lodge of Alaska, the Grand Lodge of Russia and the Grand Lodge of Missouri, Dr. Sergei Bogolepov received the sublime degree of a Master Mason in North Kansas City, Missouri.

In 2001 Dr. Bogolepov, with the assistance of the Russian Relations Committee, started a new lodge in Novosibirsk, which has a population of over 1,500,000 residents. Dr. Bogolepov was subsequently elected Worshipful Master of Alpha & Omega Lodge No. 23 in Novosibirsk. W.M. "Sergei" has inquiries from individuals to start Freemasonry in Tomsk, "a big University town about 300 miles from Novosibirsk," and Kazakstan, an independent republic. Plans are to initiate the new candidates in Novosibirsk and then assist the new Masons in starting their own lodge.

If Freemasonry is to succeed in the Far East, it must be through the labor of new Masons in Russia. We can, however, continue to start and assist new lodges to become proficient in their work and to initiate new candidates.

Non-Russian Masons can assist in the efforts of establishing Freemasonry in Eastern Russia by becoming Honorary Lifetime members of a Far East Russian Lodge. Due to financial restraints, the Grand Lodge of Alaska is unable to assist committees financially.

A one-time membership fee of $200 supports the work of introducing Freemasonry in the Far East.

Honorary Lifetime members of Pacific Rim Lodge No. 12, Vladivostok, and/or Alpha & Omega Lodge No. 23, Novosibirsk, receive a colorful membership certificate, a lodge pin, and a lifetime membership card. A copy of a current dues card serves as a petition.

Masons interested in becoming an Honorary Lifetime member of a Far East Russian lodge should contact: M.W. John Grainger, Chairman of the Russian Relations Committee, P.O. Box 5326, Ketchikan, AK 99901-0326. E-mail: jhg@kpunet.net. Checks should be made out to: GL of AK, R.R. Committee.

The Russian Far East offers a unique opportunity to establish our fraternity in an area where Masonic precepts and tenets are virtually unknown. With the traditions of brotherhood and caring, our gentle craft can become a positive influence in Russia.

More on Sir Knight William H. Wood's Sword
(See October 2004 issue of Knight Templar, page 9)

E-mail to Bill Wood from New York Recorder, Bob Cave: I think that I may have the final link in the puzzle re the ownership of your sword. I was not able to make the connection with the Commandery but with the Lodge. You stated that the sword was given to Mr. Harradine's son by Mr. Harradine's father, who was a Mason, many years ago. Well, I tracked down the father. Grand Lodge records show that a Stanley A. Harradine was born around 1896 in Hilton, New York (around Rochester). He was Raised on June 5, 1917, at the age of 21 in Etolian Lodge No. 479. He later affiliated with Sodus Lodge No. 392 in 1945. He died in 1957.

Now, William Wood belonged to several lodges in that area. One of them was Rochester Lodge No. 660, and another was Sodus Lodge No. 392.

Of course, Stanley Harradine affiliated with Sodus Lodge after Wood demitted from Masonry, but the coincidence is too great to ignore. They must have known each other during the years 1917 when Harradine was Raised and 1941 when Wood demitted from Masonry.

I firmly believe that Wood, who no longer needed the sword, gave it to his younger friend Harradine. Harradine was a foreman of some company.

E-mail to Robert Cave from Bill Wood: Brother Bob: I can't thank you enough for the time and effort, especially with your already busy schedule, it took to research the history of the sword. I can see that you are as fascinated by the story as are many others from whom I've heard. I'm also grateful to Ms. Joan Morton, who put me in touch with you and who printed this intriguing tale in its comprehensive form for the readers of the October issue of Knight Templar. Of course, my appreciation is also directed to my four guys who arranged this gracious gift.

I was asked to take the sword to a Scottish Rite luncheon and to relate the story to the 33° and KCCH members and guests who were present. I read most of the text to them and made a short talk. I went from the Scottish Rite Temple to a weekend gathering of over 100 Shrine Masons, where I passed the magazine to many of them and showed them the sword. Truly, this entire saga has captivated my interest and has been one of the most significant fraternal experiences I've enjoyed in my nearly 50 years as a Mason.
