

The National D-Day Memorial Tour Bedford, Virginia

The National D-day Memorial opened in 2001 appropriately in Bedford, Virginia. Bedford lost more of its native sons on a per capita basis than any other community in America. The Bedford Boys, 19 brave men, all of Company A gave the last full measure at Omaha Beach on June 14, 1944. The memorial is a testimony to them and all those who lost their lives on D-Day.

On Sunday, August 16, 2009, a Tour is planned to visit the National D-day Memorial located 30 minutes from Roanoke. Buses will leave at 1:30PM, and will return to the Hotel Roanoke before 3:30 PM. Cost for the trip is $25.00 per person, and a light lunch will be provided.

ATTENTION "Crafty" LADIES (or Sir Knights)

In her travels across the country, Lady Elizabeth Koon, wife of our Grand Master, has been asking talented ladies to donate examples of their handiworks to be sold in the hospitality room in August at the Triennial in Roanoke. Proceeds from the sale of these items will be donated to the Knights Templar Eye Foundation.

If you can be of assistance in this worthwhile project, please send your handiworks to:
