Templar Nomenclature

The order of Knights Templar is a sovereign body in Freemasonry and it makes its own rules and regulations. It is not governed by the laws, regulations, traditions or practices of any other Masonic body. As Knights Templar, we have our own nomenclature and should be proud to use it correctly. Below are mentioned some of the terms that are misused most often.

The Templar unit of organization is a commandery, not lodge. Commanderies hold conclaves, not meetings. Commanderies confer the Orders of the Red Cross, Malta and Temple; they do not “put on” these orders. There are no degrees in the commandery. There are three Orders. The only time the word “degree” is mentioned in the Commandery is in connection with the degree of Knight of St. Paul or Mediterranean Pass, the pass degree to the Order of Malta.

Commanderies open in full form or in short form, and the record should so state. Commanderies do not open in long form. Commanderies open and close. The Grand Commandery and the Grand Encampment convene and adjourn.

A Commandery holds its conclaves in an asylum. A council of the order of the Red Cross meets in an audience chamber, and does a part of the work in a council chamber. A priory of Knights of Malta meet in a chapel., and does a part of the work in a guard room.

Commanderies under the jurisdiction of any Grand Commandery are styled “Constituent Commanderies.” Commanderies under the immediate jurisdiction of the Grand Encampment are styled “Subordinate Commanderies.”

Templar Titles

(From the Constitution of the Grand encampment of Knights Templar of the United States).

Section 31: (Grand Encampment) The honorary title of the Grand Master is “Most Eminent” and the official title is “Grand Master.” The honorary title of each of the other officers (of the Grand Encampment) is “Right Eminent.” The honorary title shall be used in addressing or referring to an officer, e.g.: “Most Eminent Grand Master; Right Eminent Grand Treasurer,” etc. The official title only shall be used by an officer when necessary to designate his rank or official station.

Section 54: (Grand Commandery) The honorary title of the Grand Commander is “Right Eminent,” and his official title is “Grand Commander.” The honorary title of the Deputy Grand Commander is “Very Eminent,” and his official titles “Deputy Grand Commander.” The honorary title of the remaining officers of a Grand Commandery is “Eminent.”

The honorary title shall be used when an Officer is addressed and shall immediately precede the official title: “Right Eminent Grand Commander, Very Eminent Deputy Grand Commander, Eminent Grand Senior Warden.” When referring to an officer, the honorary title shall immediately follow the name, thus: “Sir Knight John Doe, Right Eminent Grand Commander; Sir Knight James Brown, Very Eminent Deputy Grand Commander; Sir Knight Peter Roe, Eminent Grand Senior warden.” The official title shall be used by an officer only when necessary to designate his rank or official station, thus: “I am Sir Knight John Jones, Grand Commander.”

Section 77: (Commandery) The honorary title of the Commander is “Eminent,” and the official title is “Commander.” The honorary title of all officers and individual members of the Order is “Sir Knight.”

The honorary title shall be used in addressing or referring to an officer, and when so used shall immediately precede the official title, e.g.: “Eminent Commander; Sir Knight Captain General; Sir Knight Warder,” etc.

The title of each and every Knight Templar, when addressed or referred to by either or both his Christian and surnames, is “Sir Knight,” without any prefix thereto, and “Sir Knights,” is the title to be applied to any assemblage of Knights Templar. The honorary title is used in speaking to the Commander. The official title is used in speaking about him. For example, “When composed of eleven, who are they?” “The Commander. Generalissimo, etc.” Or “The station of the Commander?” The Commander never refers to himself by his honorary title, but always uses the official title. Example, “I am the Commander of Blank Commandery,” never “I am the Eminent Commander of Blank Commandery.” All documents and official orders are signed by the Commander over his title as Commander not as Eminent Commander.

The official title of the Prelate of a Commandery is prelate, the honorary title is Excellent Prelate. The Commander and the Prelate are the only two officers of a Commandery that do not have the honorary prefix of Sir Knight to their stations, as is used with the remainder of the officers, as Sir Knight Captain General, or Sir Knight Warder.

The official title of a past presiding officer of a Commandery is Past Commander. The Honorary title of a past presiding officer is Eminent Past Commander, not Past Eminent Commander. The honorary title “Eminent” precedes the official part “Past Commander.” Do not divide the official part in the middle.

Do not use such titles as Eminent Sir or Eminent Sir Knight or Right Eminent Sir or Right Eminent Sir Knight. There are no such honorary titles in Templary despite their general incorrect use. The honorary title goes with the office or station, and not with the individual or the name of the individual. For example: Sir Knight John Doe, Right Eminent Grand Commander, not Right Eminent Sir John Doe Grand Commander.

In a Commandery of Knights Templar refer to a member as Sir Knight Brown. In a Priory of Knights of Malta refer to a member as Knight Brown or Brother Knight Brown. In a council of the Red Cross refer to a member as Companion Brown.
