Social Order of the Beauceant

December 1, 2019

With Christmas just days away, I extend to you, and those you hold dear, my very best wishes and upmost adoration for you all. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for allowing me to serve you and our community this year.

I ask that you pause to remember the reason for the season: our Son in Heaven who is looking down on us all with affection. On that first Christmas, the angels praised God, saying "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on Earth to men of good will." The shepherds came and adored the new Savior. St. Luke wrote, "And Mary treasured all of these things and reflected on them in her heart."

"May our hearts prepare Him room,
Our lives reflect His presence,
Our homes radiate His peace."

As your Supreme Worthy President, I treasure the gift of you and the dedication, sacrifices and hard work you have shown to make this Order a place of sisterhood and love. I thank all those who have served in any capacity, and those who will do so in the future. Please be assured you are all in my prayers. May the gift of this holiday season move us, by God's grace, to an even more special relationship with the Lord and each other.

My Sir Knight, Carl, joins me in wishing each of you a blessed, peaceful and happy Christmas and a very happy New Year. May you enjoy peace and joyful memories with family and friends.
