Welcome to Wisconsin Grand Commandery's October supplement. OK, we should be getting back to the basic in a serious way by now. We should be working on our ritual and getting our parts ready for our inspections that start this month with Wisconsin Commandery No. 1 and their Full Form Illustrious Order of the Red Cross and the Order of Malta. I very much look forward to this event every year as it is one of the most splendid ritual events of our York Rite year and it is the gateway into our chivalric Brotherhood. If you have never seen these Orders conferred in the Full Form before, take a day and come and see what we are so excited about.

The Triennial has just finished as I am writing this (in August) and we have many changes coming down the pike for our Constituent Commanderies. For example; summer uniform wearing, special allowances for the conduct of some of our smaller Commanderies that are struggling, the possibility of a holding Commandery and the adoption of Templar Aprons. Now, don't rush out and buy an expensive apron until I can get a General Order out that defines the type and wear of these new aprons. There are several styles and there are guidelines set down in the resolution that I must adhere to. So be patient. Who knows, by the time you are reading this in October I may have sent out the General Order on the new aprons already.

I know it can get confusing reading things months after they were submitted, believe me. It is harder to project the future than you think. And, now that the State supplements are not being printed and sent out with the monthly KT magazine, you have to wonder why they are being submitted at all. I know we need this avenue of of communication and we do still have many Brothers/Sir Knights that are not "into" obtaining an "App" for everything in life. Likewise, I wonder how many Sir Knights will continue their subscription to the magazine if they are not getting the connective information they desire. The September issue doesn't have the supplements, either in print or online! So, I am appealing to the supplement editor from Wisconsin to find out what the future holds for this magazine and let the rest of us know.

I look forward to seeing all of you on my travels across this beautiful state this inspection season. Concentrate on your ritual, mentor a new Sir Knight and take good care of your family. May the Lords Blessings be with you and yours.

Courteously Yours;

SK Clinton H. Cagle, Grand Commander
Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Wisconsin
